Instruction courses conducted at the Kaserno Am See on Kloster Strasse, Strausberg (N 53/V 15) were attended by 120 officers and 200 NCOs. The courses lasted for five months. The students who belonged to various branches of service came from various posts such as Juterbog, Berlin-Gruenau, Bad Freienwalde etc. They received infantry training in addition to other instruction. There also was a kitchen where students received instruction. No course was under way on 18 July. However, source learned that another course would soon begin. Small groups arrived during recent days. The cadre personnel consisted of 25 officers and 50 soldiers.
